HOVERCRAFT

Aim :

Design and fabricate one lightweight hovercraft, easily maneuverable, quick, and strong. The hovercrafts face each other in an elevated arena with the goal of pushing the other hovercraft off the arena.

Team Specification :

A team can consist of 3 or 4 members, each team must consist of unique members. Not more than 2 members of a team can control the hovercraft at any given time.

HOVERCRAFT

Bot Allowances :

- Maximum model length allocm
- Maximum model width allowed: 50cm
- Maximum model height allowed: 50cm (zero-lift condition)
- The model can be fabricated using foam, wood, coroplast (sunpack), or any other material that will not damage electronic components of bots like knives, pointed pencils, iron rods, etc
- The model should be wireless but manually controlled.
- Only electric motors are allowed.
- A tolerance of 5% will be considered.be .

Gameplay :

A 1v1 faceoff between two hovercrafts. The hovercraft that gets pushed off the arena first loses the match. A 1v1 faceoff between two hovercrafts. The hovercraft that gets pushed off the arena first loses the match.

HOVERCRAFT

General Rules :

- Using any kind of fire, spray, liquid, or any other activity that may cause serious damage to the arena or the electronics is not allowed.
- Usage of any kind of sharp materials will NOT be allowed.
- If seen idle for 5 seconds, the team shall be warned, and if the team continues to idle for another 10 seconds, the team will be disqualified.
- Teams shall be warned and disqualified by referees/judges if seen not engaging in the fight (attacking/defending) for a prolonged period.
- General Rules are subject to change. In any such cases, all teams will be informed

In case of any discrepancy, the decision of Team Robodarshan will be final and binding.

Pushpika Patel: +91-8318575758
Anchal Chaudhary: +91-9336049348